

RECORD-SETTING VOTERS

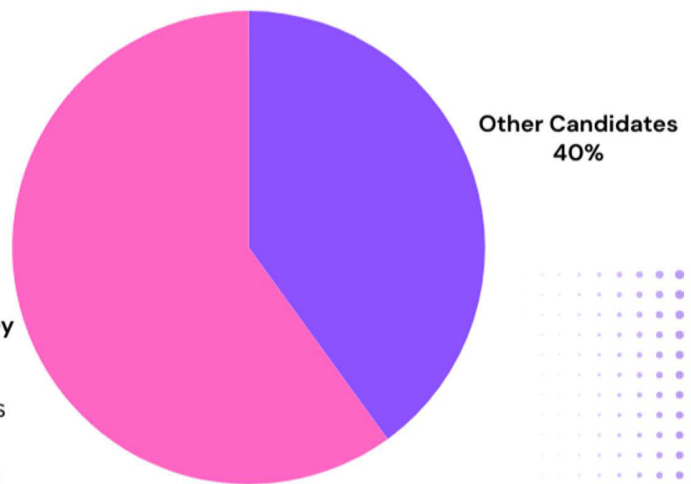

This with strategic marketing, paid and organic, New Hampshire primary set turnout record with more than 300,000 voting

As of the latest vote tally nearly 318,000 Granite State Republicans and independents cast votes in the first-in-the-nation primary, exceeding the previous record set in the 2020 Democratic primary. This year Nikki captured over 60% of the independents that voted in the Republican primaries.

INDEPENDENTS VOTING

- Nikki Haley
- Other Candidates

Nikki captured over 60% of the independents that voted in the Republican primaries. Independent (or undeclared) voters can vote in New Hampshire's Republican primary, and they came out in large numbers. More than four in 10 of the electorate were self-identified independents, compared to just 16% in Iowa.

